

Winners and Runners Up of the English Teachers' Award 2008

The English Inspectorate is pleased to announce the winners and the runners up of the English Teachers' Award for 2008. The three winners have been awarded an all-expense paid trip to the TESOL Conference (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) in New York City, arranged and financed by the American Embassy.

As Chief Inspector for English Language Education, recognizing dedication and excellence in teaching is a top priority. The teachers who were chosen as recipients have made extremely valuable contributions, both to classroom teaching and to the broader Israeli EFL community. Their work reflects dedication, professionalism and inspiration and is worthy of emulation. On behalf of the English Inspectorate, congratulations!

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank the American Embassy for their generous contribution to English teaching in Israel.
